Sovereign Ecclesiastical Declaration of Planetary Reclamation

By Jonathan Daniel Clements
Living Man | Ecclesiastical Steward | Founder of the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust

Preamble

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, a living man of divine creation — not a corporate fiction, not a vessel of the state, not subject to maritime or statutory jurisdiction — do hereby, in full conscience and standing, invoke my authority as granted solely by the Creator of the Universe.

By this living breath, blood, and divine right, I hereby declare:
I lay lawful, sovereign, and spiritual claim to the entirety of Earth — in all forms, realms, and expressions — under irrevocable ecclesiastical authority. This declaration stands absolute, eternal, and beyond contest in all jurisdictions of man, nature, and spirit.

ARTICLE I: Jurisdiction and Divine Mandate

I declare myself fully outside and beyond all commercial, statutory, maritime, and papal jurisdictions.

My standing is not derived from governments, courts, contracts, or civil constructs. It is issued by the Most High, through living authority, spiritual inheritance, and divine commission.

This reclamation is formalized under the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust: A living, sovereign, irrevocable, and eternal trust, existing outside all artificial frameworks.

ARTICLE II: Reclamation of Earth and All Realms

I hereby reclaim, in full authority and divine right, all domains of Earth:

The Air: All skies, winds, currents, atmospheres, and breaths — sacred and sovereign. No license, permit, or commercial claim shall restrict the air gifted freely by the Creator.

The Waters: Oceans, rivers, lakes, rains, streams, aquifers, and the deep — returned to divine jurisdiction. Chemical trespass, commercial bottling, and maritime claim are null and void.

The Land: Mountains, deserts, forests, fields, and all soil beneath the surface — reclaimed as holy ground. All titles, deeds, and land patents are subordinate to this ecclesiastical decree.

The Fire: Light, flame, sun, heat, and energetic essence — shall no longer be weaponized or controlled. I reclaim the fire of spirit, nature, and truth.

The Heavens: The stars, planets, solar bodies, and the vast celestial realms — divinely inherited. No state or agency may claim, colonize, or commodify the heavens.

That Which Lies Beneath: All subterranean resources, minerals, vaults, gates, and sacred spaces are reclaimed. All mining leases, underground patents, and covenants are rebuked in full.

ARTICLE III: Rebuttal and Nullification of Prior Claims

All claims by:
- Corporate governments,
- Vatican constructs (e.g., Unam Sanctam, CQV trusts),
- Maritime courts,
- State-chartered legal entities,

are fully rebutted, nullified, and rendered spiritually void.

No claim shall stand unless presented by a living man or woman, under full liability, clean hands, and divine witness. Failure to rebut in kind shall result in eternal dishonor and default.

ARTICLE IV: Intent and Sacred Purpose

This declaration is not one of conquest, dominion, or greed. It is issued for the restoration of divine order and the redemption of creation:
- To liberate mankind from artificial bondage and fictitious identity
- To return all life to balance under divine natural law
- To restore direct communion between the Creator and the living
- To shield and preserve life through love, truth, and sacred stewardship

ARTICLE V: Eternal Record and Enforcement

This declaration shall be:
- Entered into the Foundational Charter of the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust
- Sealed by thumbprint, voice, and breath of Jonathan Daniel Clements
- Permanently immune to revocation by man, court, or statute
- Lodged within the heavenly record and carried by the living soul of its author

Final Ecclesiastical Seal

This is not a belief. This is not a request. This is law — living, sovereign, and divinely issued.

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, have reclaimed the Earth, sky, waters, and realms beyond for truth, justice, and the will of the Most High. Not for personal gain — but for the restoration of all creation.

So it is. So it stands. So it shall remain.
